From the author of 'Lend Me a Tenor,' this hilarious backstage farce follows the antics of two seasoned performers currently doing repertoire in Buffalo in 1953. Charlotte and George have just found out they've been given a shot at starring roles in an upcoming Frank Capra film. But will George be sober enough to perform? The Tony award-winning play is packed with intrigue, murder plots, double-crossing secret agents, government secrets, classy dames, old fashioned romance, and even an onstage airplane chase. How is this all possible on stage? With 4 actors playing 150 different characters and a whole lot of ingenuity!

You meet the love of your life, your destiny, your one true soulmate. Vows are exchanged and happily ever after is laid out before you. So what happens when that soul reveals itself to be someone entirely different than you thought they'd be?
